(b) if so, what are the details thereof; and

(c) if not, what are the reasons for such discrimination?

THE MINISTER OF PLANNING AND THE MINISTER OF PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRI MADHAVSINH SOLANKI): (a) to (c) Government have accepted in principle the recommendations of the Pande Committee (National Transport Policy Committee) Report to gradually phase out the freight equalisation scheme subject to subsidisation of transport for remote, inaccessible and isolated areas. The phasing out of freight equalisation for cement was completed by end of February, 1989 with the complete decontrol of the cement industry. However, the matter is to be deliberated upon by the National Development Council.

Absence of Duties of Medical and paramedical Staff in CGHS Compendium

1592. SHRI SOHAN LAL DHUSIYA: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) the Year in which the system of opening of Units by CGHS was introduced first in the country;

(b) whether it is a fact that in the CGHS Compendium printed in 1982, no mention was made of the duties of medical and para medical staff posted in these Units; and

(c) if so, the reasons for ignoring the system of Units, even after its introduction in the Department?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMIL WELFARE (SHRI RAFIQUE ALAM): (a) The System of opening Units by CGHS was introduced in 1975-76.

(b) The staff posted in Units have to perform duties similar to their counterparts posted in dispensaries and their duties have been defined in the Compendium.
